Reading Day observance. The week-long program aimed to instill a lasting love for reading, encourage creative expression, and foster collaboration between institutions and communities.

The celebration featured a diverse range of engaging activities designed to appeal to various interests and age groups:

- College-Level Reading Competition: A reading competition was held at the college, providing a platform for students to showcase their reading proficiency and comprehension skills.
- Outreach Reading Competition: Extending the celebration beyond the college campus, an outreach reading competition was organized at Kalpakanchery Government Higher Secondary School. This initiative aimed to promote reading habits among younger students and strengthen community ties.
- Quiz Competition: A stimulating quiz competition tested participants' knowledge across various subjects, encouraging them to delve deeper into different literary and general knowledge domains.
- Creative Bookmark-Making Contest: This activity encouraged participants to express their creativity while designing unique bookmarks, adding a fun and artistic dimension to the celebration of reading.

The entire Reading Week Celebration was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting literacy, encouraging creative thinking, and building stronger connections within the academic and local communities. The enthusiastic participation across all events underscored the enduring appeal of reading and the importance of such initiatives in nurturing a vibrant intellectual environment.

Reading Week Celebration Report Organized by the Malayalam Club and English Association.

As part of the nation-wide observance of Reading Day in honour of the legendary P.N. Panicker, the Malayalam Club and English Association organized a vibrant and enriching Reading Week Celebration from June 19 to June 26. The week featured a series of events designed to foster a deep love for reading, creativity, and knowledge among students and the wider community.

Activities Conducted

- Reading Competition – College Level Held within the college campus, this event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across departments, showcasing their articulation, comprehension, and presentation skills.
- Quiz Competition – Outreach Program: In collaboration with Government Higher Secondary School, Kalpakanchery, the club extended the joy of reading beyond the college. This initiative created a bridge between institutions and inspired school students to embrace reading as a lifelong habit.
- Quiz Competition - A literary quiz tested the knowledge and quick thinking of participants on topics ranging from classical literature to current affairs, promoting healthy academic competition and engagement.
- Bookmark Making Competition: A creative hands-on event that invited students to design artistic and inspiring bookmarks, blending aesthetics with literary wisdom. The entries were later displayed across the campus library and reading corners.

The Reading Week celebration was a memorable and meaningful initiative that successfully brought together young minds in pursuit of literary joy. The English Association and Malayalam Club look forward to continuing such events in the future, nurturing the readers and thinkers of tomorrow.
