PROGRAMME REPORT

Literary Club, CPA College of Global Studies, conducted its first programme “English News Reading”, in connection with Reading Day(June 19) to cultivate in depth reading among students.It was on 16th June 2023.Literary club members actively participated in the competition. Mrs Sumayya and Mrs Dhanya were the judges of this programme and almost 12 students participated. The prize winners are Fidha of Zoology, Safeena of English and Nidha of Psychology who bagged first, second and third prizes respectively.

Students participated in reading news articles from various fields like sports, politics, entertainment, and more. They were assessed based on their pronunciation, intonation, clarity, fluency, and confidence.

The competition was a great way to encourage students to develop their communication skills and build their confidence. It also helped them develop an interest in current affairs and newspaper reading. We look forward to organizing more events like this in the future.

KERALA LITERATURE FESTIVAL VISIT, 2024

A group comprising 31 Final BA students and 9 MA students embarked on an enriching educational excursion to the Kerala Literature Festival. The festival, held in Kozhikode, provided a unique opportunity for students to immerse themselves in the vibrant literary and cultural landscape of Kerala.

Students attended a variety of literary sessions featuring renowned authors, poets, and intellectuals. Engaged in insightful discussions on contemporary literature, regional themes, and global perspectives.

Participated in interactive workshops and seminars, gaining hands-on experience and knowledge on diverse literary topics. Explored the intersection of literature with other art forms, such as music, visual arts, and cinema.

Students had the opportunity to interact with esteemed authors and scholars, fostering a direct connection with the literary world. Conversations with authors allowed for a deeper understanding of their creative processes and the inspirations behind their works.

Enjoyed cultural performances showcasing the rich heritage of Kerala, providing a holistic experience beyond literature. Immersed in traditional music, dance, and artistic expressions unique to the region. Exposure to a diverse range of literary genres and perspectives broadened students' understanding of literature. Witnessing the convergence of regional and global voices emphasized the interconnectedness of literature.

The integration of cultural elements into the festival highlighted the significance of literature in preserving and celebrating cultural heritage. Students gained an appreciation for the role of literature in reflecting societal values and norms.

The festival provided a platform for students to connect with fellow literature enthusiasts, authors, and professionals in the literary field. Networking opportunities opened doors for potential collaborations and future engagements.

The visit to the Kerala Literature Festival proved to be an invaluable experience for the 40 participating students. It not only enhanced their academic understanding of literature but also enriched their cultural awareness. The festival served as a catalyst for intellectual growth, fostering a deep appreciation for the power of literature in shaping societies and individuals. This educational excursion will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact on the students' academic and personal development.

REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL LITERATURE FESTIVAL

International Literature Festival of Kerala: Trissur Visit Report

The International Literature Festival of Kerala (ILFK) held its grand event in the culturally vibrant city of Trissur on February 1st, 2024. The festival, known for its celebration of diverse literary traditions and intellectual exchange, attracted a plethora of renowned authors, poets, scholars, and literary enthusiasts from across the globe. The festival took place in the heart of Trissur, amidst the picturesque landscapes and rich historical ambiance of the city. The venue, meticulously adorned with vibrant banners and artistic installations, radiated an aura of creativity and intellectual fervor. Attendees were greeted with a warm and welcoming atmosphere, fostering a sense of camaraderie and mutual appreciation for literature.

The festival featured a series of engaging panel discussions and debates, covering a wide array of literary themes and socio-cultural issues. Eminent scholars and intellectuals led these sessions, providing valuable insights and perspectives on topics ranging from postcolonial literature to contemporary feminist narratives.

Renowned authors and poets captivated the audience with their readings, offering glimpses into their creative processes and literary endeavors. Several new books were launched during the festival, providing attendees with the opportunity to interact with authors and acquire firsthand insights into their works.

The festival offered interactive workshops and masterclasses, providing aspiring writers and enthusiasts with valuable guidance and mentorship. Participants had the chance to refine their writing skills, explore new literary techniques, and engage in meaningful discussions with industry experts.

In addition to literary events, the festival showcased the cultural heritage of Kerala through captivating performances of music, dance, and theater. These cultural extravaganzas added a vibrant and dynamic dimension to the overall festival experience, celebrating the diversity and richness of Kerala's artistic traditions.

The International Literature Festival of Kerala in Trissur on February 1st, 2024, was a resounding success, reaffirming its status as a premier platform for literary exchange and cultural dialogue. Through its diverse array of events and activities, the festival not only celebrated the power of words but also fostered a sense of community and intellectual curiosity among participants. As the curtains drew to a close, attendees departed with enriched minds and inspired spirits, eagerly anticipating the next edition of this prestigious literary extravaganza.
